

Sports Scholars (2020-21)

(For Form One Entrants from PUAWYPS)

Purpose and Scope

Wah Yan is known for students who can excel in both sports and their academic studies. In fact, we put emphasis on academic learning as well as non-academic developmental experiences for each student as part of our vision to offer a holistic, liberating and transforming Catholic education. We believe that participation in sports activities can effectively develop not just healthy bodies and sports skills but also important generic attributes like perseverance, sense of responsibility, resilience, self-confidence, loyalty, teamwork, leadership, etc. The “Sports Scholars” scheme is launched to recognize Form One entrants who are exceptional in their holistic development, i.e. being not just outstanding in sports, but also very good to excellent in academic studies and exemplary in character formation with strong potentials to contribute to their community as leaders in their field.

How to apply

The application form will be available from your school. The form should be submitted with supporting documents to us via your school. Candidates not notified of the result by the end of January should consider that their application for the Sports Scholars unsuccessful.

N.B.:

- 1) Applicants should submit a separate application form for a Form One Discretionary Place (DP) at WYHK via your primary school.
- 2) Being conditionally conferred the title of “Sports Scholars” does not imply that the candidate has been given a Form One school place at WYHK.
- 3) Likewise, failing to being named a “Sports Scholar” does not imply that the applicant has been denied a Form One school place.
