

MAGIS Fund

Donation of 1 million HK dollars forwarded by Fr. Chow, S.J.

1. Purpose

To help those who participate in activities for widening the scope of learning with the rationale of Jesuit motto – For the Greater Glory of God*

2. Areas that the fund can be used

- a. Diversity Learning – Learning foreign languages, programs offered by local or overseas universities other than normal academic subjects
- b. Cultural Exchange, Religious Excursions and Character Formation programs
- c. Training programs Performing Arts such as drama, dancing and Debates
- d. Study Skills Courses such as mind-map, creative thinking organized by experts in the fields

3. Applications

Both teachers who are in charge of the program or students who want to participate in the course organized by outside bodies and represent the school may apply. The amount and details on the subsidy for a program will be subjected to the decision of a MAGIS Fund.

*Jesuit education is world affirming.

- assists in the total formation of each individual within the human community.
- includes a religious dimension that permeates the entire education.
- is an apostolic instrument.
- promotes dialogue between faith and culture.

(excerpt from Characteristics of Jesuit Education)